SECURE JOBS MUST BE AT THE CENTRE OF SERVICE DELIVERY TO MAKE SURE THE NDIS IS THE BEST IT CAN BE

THE FACTS:

- Some employers are looking to restructure their organisations. They are seeking to create casual and short term positions instead of permanent jobs in the sector.
- There are disability organisations moving to create a “two tiered” workforce. This would be made up of a small number of permanent supervisors and administrators, with a large group of casual disability workers paid on an hourly basis.

Authorised by Linda White, Assistant National Secretary, Australian Services Union, Ground floor, 116 Queensberry St, Carlton South, Victoria, 3053, Australia

- THE ASU IS CAMPAIGNING FOR A FAIR NDIS PRICING MODEL WHICH INCLUDES:
 - Secure jobs, not just short term casual work.
 - Career paths for disability workers.
 - Team approaches and good quality supervision.
 - Stability of the workforce to ensure consistency for people with disabilities.
- The ASU is campaigning for the NDIS to take the high road of secure jobs, not the low road of cost cutting.
