

ASU Thai Airways Enterprise Agreement 2016 Enterprise agreement bargaining will commence soon

Your Agreement expired 30 June and Thai Airways have indicated an intention to commence bargaining.

If you are not a member of the ASU then your views may not be represented in bargaining.

Help us prepare the ASU claim

Your views are welcome and can be provided by returning an online survey here:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/ThaiAirways2016>

- All responses are confidential and the survey closes on 22 July 2016.
- Your valuable responses will be used to prepare an ASU Claim for negotiations.
- Personal information will never be shared and responses will always remain confidential.
- The survey also provides an opportunity to nominate for the ASU bargaining team.

The Australian Services Union deploys legal expertise to negotiate agreements for staff at employers such as Jetstar, Emirates, Singapore Airlines, Menzies Aviation, Air New Zealand, Malaysia Airlines, Qantas, Qantaslink and Dnata.

The ASU would love to hear your views, identify issues for the negotiations and get the best deal for everyone.
