

Dodgy AHSA EBA listed for hearing!

On Thursday 6 April 2017 Dnata's AHSA and Altara's AGR substandard EBA's are listed for a hearing in the Fair Work Commission in Melbourne and by video link to Sydney. The battle lines are drawn!

This Thursday 6 April 2017 is a key time in determining whether or not the 2 new Agreements get approved by the Fair Work Commission.

Your Union, the ASU, will be ensuring that we throw every legal resource available to us in an attempt to knock these two sub-standard agreements off. The ASU has engaged Slater and Gordon who have a long history of fighting alongside Unions for working people.

There are no guarantees!

Unfortunately with every legal strategy available there are no guarantees that the Union can ensure that these Agreements never see the light of day. This is why we need your help and involvement at 1300 on Thursday 6 April.

We need you to come to the FWC.

The ASU needs as many people as possible to attend the Fair Work Commission hearing on Thursday 6 April at 1pm for a rally out the front.

Where: 11 Exhibition Street Melbourne
(between Flinders & Flinders Lane)
Date: Thursday, 6 April 2017
Time: 1pm – 2pm

Where: Sydney FWC
80 William Street
East Sydney
Date: Thursday, 6 April 2017
Time: 1pm – 2pm

We need to send a loud message to the company that we will not sit back and let these 2 companies strip away your terms and conditions of employment.

The future if AHSA and Altara get their way!

There is no doubt that AHSA (and Altara) will be a direct threat to working conditions for you and the broader airline industry.

It's time to stand up and stop the unscrupulous behavior from your employer and Altara. It's time to fight back and tell them that what they have done is not acceptable.

Let's not forget how we got here.

Your company, Dnata, attempted to sneak a dodgy, substandard EBA through the FWC without letting you or your Union know. They worked with Altara who lodged an identical Agreement.

We only know that Dnata and Altara attempted to do this because the ASU caught them out whilst perusing the listings in the FWC. Even when caught out Dnata tried to deny that it knew much about the Agreement at all and tried to play down its existence.

Do not forget, the sneaky underhanded way in which Dnata and Altara are attempting to circumvent your terms and conditions of employment and put at risk your current job. Their behaviour is nothing less than abhorrent and should be called out for exactly what it is.

Please try to attend the FWC hearing in Melbourne or Sydney.
