Re: ANZSCO Review of Occupations – Consultation round 2

The Australian Services Union ('ASU') is one of Australia's largest unions, representing approximately 135,000 members. ASU members work in a wide variety of industries and occupations in both the private and public sector.

During Consultation round 2 the ASU has been corresponding with the ANZSCO Review Team and are in receipt of draft proposed changes for:

- Social Workers
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Workers
- Health and Welfare Services Managers.

We thank you for providing these drafts and have no feedback in terms of Social Workers or Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health Workers. We note the draft proposed changes provided to us for Health and Welfare Services Managers was not 100% complete. We would be pleased to receive an updated draft for this occupation once finalised so that we can consult with our membership.

We also note the ANSCO Review Team is yet to prepare draft proposed changes for occupations within:

- Air and space transport
- Electricity, gas, water and waste services
- Tourism services

Again, we would be pleased to receive a copy of these occupations once drafted so that we can provide feedback (if any) after consulting with our membership.

Yours faithfully

Jody Miles
