- 19 (2) The minimum standards relate to the following matters:
- 20 (a) maximum weekly hours (Division 2);

1 (3) This Part constitutes the National Employment Standards.

2 3 Relationship between National Employment Standards and
3 modern awards

4 (1) A modern award must not exclude the National Employment
5 Standards or any provision of the National Employment Standards.

6 (2) A modern award may include the following kinds of provisions:

7 (a) provisions that are ancillary or incidental to the operation of 8 an entitlement of an employee under the National
9 Employment Standards;

10 (b) provisions that supplement the National Employment
11 Standards;

12 but only if the effect of those provisions is not detrimental to an 13 employee in any respect, when compared to the National 14 Employment Standards.

15 Note 1: Ancillary or incidental provisions permitted by paragraph (a) include 16 (for example) provisions:

17 (a) under which, instead of taking paid annual leave at the rate of 18 pay required by section 35, an employee may take twice as much
19 annual leave at half that rate of pay; or

20 (b) that specify when payment under section 35 in respect of paid
21 annual leave must be made.

22 Note 2: Supplementary provisions permitted by paragraph (b) include (for 23 example) provisions:

24 (a) that increase the amount of paid annual leave to which an
25 employee is entitled beyond the number of weeks applicable
26 under section 32; or

27 (b) that allow an employee to take paid personal/carer's leave while 28 he or she is on unpaid parental leave (despite subsection 25(2)).

29 Note 3: Provisions that would not be permitted by paragraph (a) or (b) include 30 (for example) provisions requiring an employee to give more notice of 31 the taking of unpaid parental leave than is required by section 20.

32 (3) A provision in a modern award that is permitted by subsection (2)
33 does not contravene subsection (1).

34 (4) A modern award has no effect to the extent to which it contravenes
35 this section.

Section 4

- 1 (5) Nothing in this section affects a modern award to the extent to 2 which it includes provisions that modern awards are expressly
3 permitted to include:
4 (a) by a provision of this Part; or
5 (b) by regulations made for the purposes of paragraph 10(a).
6 Note: In determining what is permitted to be included in a modern award by 7 a provision mentioned in paragraph (a), any regulations made for the 8 purpose of paragraph 10(b) must be taken into account.
- 9 (6) The National Employment Standards have effect subject to 10 provisions included in a modern award as mentioned in 11 subsection (5).
12 Note: See also the note to subsection 12(6).

13 4 Meaning of *base rate of pay

- 14 (1) The base rate of pay of an employee, other than a pieceworker, is 15 the rate of pay payable to the employee for his or her ordinary 16 hours of work, but not including any of the following:
17 (a) incentive-based payments and bonuses;
18 (b) loadings;
19 (c) monetary allowances;
20 (d) overtime or penalty rates;
21 (e) any other separately identifiable amounts.
- 22 (2) The base rate of pay of an employee who is a pieceworker is the 23 rate of pay specified in the relevant modern award as the 24 employee's base rate of pay for the purpose of this Part.

25 5 Meaning of *child

- 26 (1) A child of a person is:
27 (a) a biological child of the person; or 28 (b) an adopted child or step-child of the person; or 29 (c) if, at any time, the person was in a relationship as a couple 30 with another person (whether the persons are the same sex or 31 different sexes)—a child who is a product of the person's 32 relationship with that other person.
33 It does not matter whether the child is an adult.

1 (2) For the purpose of paragraph (1)(c), a child cannot be the product
 2 of a relationship between two persons (whether the persons are the 3 same sex or different sexes) for the purposes of this Part unless the 4 child is the biological child of at least one of the persons or is born
 5 to a woman in the relationship.

6 (3) If, under this section, one person is a child of another person, other 7 relationships are also to be determined on the basis that the child is 8 a child of the other person.

9 Note: For example, for the purpose of the definition of immediate family in
 10 section 1:

- 11 (a) the other person is the parent of the child; and 12 (b) the child is the sibling of any other child of the other person.

13 6 Meaning of *full rate of pay

14 (1) The full rate of pay of an employee, other than a pieceworker, is 15 the rate of pay payable to the employee, including all the 16 following:

- 17 (a) incentive-based payments and bonuses;
 18 (b) loadings;
 19 (c) monetary allowances;
 20 (d) overtime or penalty rates;
 21 (e) any other separately identifiable amounts.

22 (2) The full rate of pay of an employee who is a pieceworker is the 23 rate of pay specified in the relevant modern award as the 24 employee's full rate of pay for the purpose of this Part.

25 7 Meaning of *service

26 In this Part, other than Divisions 3 and 4 and Subdivision A of 27 Division 10

28 (1) For the purpose of this Part, other than Division 3 (requests for 29 flexible working arrangements), Division 4 (parental leave and 30 related entitlements) and Subdivision A of Division 10 (notice of 31 termination or payment in lieu of notice):

Section 8

- 1 (a) a period of service by an employee with an employer is a
2 period during which the employee is employed by the
3 employer, but not including any excepted period; and 4 (b) an excepted period does not break an employee's continuous
5 service with an employer, but is not to be counted towards 6 the length of the employee's continuous service.
- 7 (2) An excepted period is:
8 (a) any period of unauthorised absence; or 9 (b) any period of unpaid leave or unpaid authorised absence,
10 other than:
11 (i) a period of absence under Division 7 (community 12 service leave); or 13 (ii) a period of leave or absence of a kind prescribed by the 14 regulations.

15 In Divisions 3 and 4 and Subdivision A of Division 10

- 16 (3) For the purpose of Division 3 (requests for flexible working 17 arrangements), Division 4 (parental leave and related entitlements) 18 and Subdivision A of Division 10 (notice of termination or 19 payment in lieu of notice):
20 (a) a period of service by an employee with an employer is a
21 period during which the employee is employed by the
22 employer, but not including any period of unauthorised
23 absence; and
24 (b) a period of unauthorised absence does not break an 25 employee's continuous service with an employer, but is not
26 to be counted towards the length of the employee's
27 continuous service.

28 8 Restriction on taking or accruing leave or absence while receiving 29 workers' compensation

- 30 (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an employee is not entitled to 31 take or accrue any leave or absence (whether paid or unpaid) under 32 this Part during a period (a compensation period) when the 33 employee is absent from work because of a personal illness, or a
34 personal injury, for which the employee is receiving compensation

1 payable under a law (a compensation law) of the Commonwealth,
2 or of a State or Territory, relating to workers' compensation.

3 (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent an employee from taking or 4 accruing leave during a compensation period if the taking or 5 accruing of the leave is permitted by a compensation law.

6 (3) Subsection (1) does not prevent an employee from taking unpaid
7 parental leave during a compensation period.

8 9 Modern awards may provide for school-based apprentices and 9 trainees to be paid loadings in lieu

10 A modern award may provide for school-based apprentices or 11 school-based trainees to be paid loadings in lieu of any of the 12 following:

13 (a) paid annual leave;

14 (b) paid personal/carer's leave;

15 (c) paid absence under Division 9 (public holidays).

16 10 Regulations about what modern awards can do

17 The regulations may:

18 (a) permit modern awards to include provisions that would or 19 might otherwise be contrary to this Part; or

20 (b) prohibit modern awards from including provisions that would 21 or might otherwise be permitted by a provision of this Part.

22 11 Relationship with other Commonwealth legislation

23 This Part establishes minimum standards and so is intended to 24 supplement, and not to override, entitlements under other
25 Commonwealth legislation.

1

2 Division 2—Maximum weekly hours

3 12 Maximum weekly hours

4 Standard hours

- 5 (1) Subject to subsection (2), an employee's hours of work for an 6 employer in a week must not exceed:
7 (a) for a full-time employee—38 hours; or
8 (b) for an employee other than a full-time employee—the lesser
9 of:
10 (i) 38 hours; and
11 (ii) the employee's ordinary hours of work in a week.

12 Reasonable additional hours

- 13 (2) The employer may request or require the employee to work 14 reasonable additional hours in the week.
- 15 (3) The employee may refuse to work additional hours (beyond those 16 mentioned in subsection (1)) if they are unreasonable.
- 17 (4) In determining whether additional hours are reasonable or 18 unreasonable for the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), the 19 following must be considered:
20 (a) any risk to employee health and safety from working the 21 additional hours;
22 (b) the employee's personal circumstances, including family
23 responsibilities;
24 (c) the needs of the workplace or enterprise in which the 25 employee is employed;
26 (d) whether the employee is entitled to receive overtime
27 payments, penalty rates or other compensation for, or a level
28 of remuneration that reflects an expectation of, working
29 additional hours;
30 (e) the notice (if any) given by the employer of any request or 31 requirement to work the additional hours;

- 1 (f) the notice (if any) given by the employee of his or her
 2 intention to refuse to work the additional hours;
 3 (g) the usual patterns of work in the industry, or the part of an 4 industry, in which the employee works;
 5 (h) the nature of the employee's role, and the employee's level of 6 responsibility;
 7 (i) whether the additional hours are in accordance with 8 averaging provisions included a modern award;
 9 (j) any other relevant matter.

10 Authorised leave treated as hours worked

- 11 (5) For the purposes of subsection (1), the hours an employee works in 12 a week are taken to include any hours of authorised leave the 13 employee takes in the week. Authorised leave is the employee's 14 leave, or absence, whether paid or unpaid, that is authorised:
 15 (a) by the employee's employer; or 16 (b) by or under a term or condition of the employee's 17 employment; or
 18 (c) by or under a law of the Commonwealth, or of a State or a
 19 Territory, or an instrument in force under such a law.

20 Modern awards may provide for averaging of hours of work

- 21 (6) A modern award may include provisions for the averaging of hours
 22 of work over a specified period. The average weekly hours over the 23 period must not exceed:
 24 (a) for a full-time employee—38 hours; or
 25 (b) for an employee other than a full-time employee—the lesser
 26 of:
 27 (i) 38 hours; and
 28 (ii) the employee's ordinary hours of work in a week.

29 Note: Hours in excess of the hours referred to in paragraph (6)(a) or (b) that 30 are worked in a week in accordance with averaging provisions in a 31 modern award will be treated as additional hours for the purpose of 32 this section, but the averaging provisions will be relevant in 33 determining whether the additional hours are reasonable (see 34 paragraph (4)(i)).

1

2 Division 3—Requests for flexible working arrangements

3 13 Requests for flexible working arrangements

4 (1) An employee who is a parent, or has a responsibility for the care,
5 of a child under school age may request the employer for a change
6 in working arrangements for the purpose of assisting the employee
7 to care for the child.

8 Note: Examples of changes in working arrangements include changes in 9 hours of work, changes in patterns of work and changes in location of 10 work.

11 (2) The employee is not entitled to make the request unless:

12 (a) for an employee other than a casual employee—the employee
13 has completed at least 12 months of continuous service with 14 the employer immediately before making the request; or

15 (b) for a casual employee—the employee:

16 (i) has been engaged by the employer on a regular and 17 systematic basis for a sequence of periods of 18 employment during a period of at least 12 months
19 immediately before making the request; and

20 (ii) has a reasonable expectation of continuing engagement
21 by the employer on a regular and systematic basis.

22 (3) The request must:

23 (a) be in writing; and

24 (b) set out details of the change sought and reasons for the 25 change.

26 (4) The employer must give the employee a written response to the 27 request within 21 days, stating whether the employer grants or 28 refuses the request.

29 (5) The employer may refuse the request only on reasonable business
30 grounds.

31 (6) If the employer refuses the request, the written response under 32 subsection (4) must include the reasons for the refusal.

1

2 Division 4—Parental leave and related entitlements3 Subdivision A—General4 14 General rule—employee must have completed at least 12 months
5 of service6 Employees other than casual employees

- 7 (1) An employee, other than a casual employee, is not entitled to leave
8 under this Division (other than unpaid pre-adoption leave) unless 9 the employee has, or will have, completed at least 12 months of 10 continuous service with the employer immediately before:
- 11 (a) if the leave is birth-related leave—the date of birth, or the 12 expected date of birth, of the child; or
 - 13 (b) if the leave is adoption-related leave—the day of placement,
14 or the expected day of placement, of the child.

15 Casual employees

- 16 (2) A casual employee is not entitled to leave (other than unpaid 17 pre-adoption leave) under this Division unless:
- 18 (a) the employee has, or will have, been engaged by the 19 employer on a regular and systematic basis for a sequence of 20 periods of employment during a period of at least 12 months
21 immediately before:
 - 22 (i) if the leave is birth-related leave—the date of birth, or 23 the expected date of birth, of the child; or
 - 24 (ii) if the leave is adoption-related leave—the day of 25 placement, or the expected day of placement, of the 26 child; and
 - 27 (b) but for the birth or expected birth of the child, or the 28 placement or the expected placement of the child, the 29 employee would have a reasonable expectation of continuing 30 engagement by the employer on a regular and systematic 31 basis.

- 1 (3) Despite the definition of child in section 5, an employee is not
2 entitled to unpaid parental leave in relation to a child if the child is 3 not:
4 (a) born to the employee or the employee's spouse or de facto
5 partner (within the meaning of subsection (2) of this section);
6 or
7 (b) placed with the employee for adoption.

8 17 The period of leave: other than for members of an employee
9 couple who each intend to take leave

10 When this section applies

- 11 (1) This section applies to an employee who intends to take unpaid 12 parental leave if:
13 (a) the employee is not a member of an employee couple; or 14 (b) the employee is a member of an employee couple, but the 15 other member of the couple does not intend to take unpaid
16 parental leave.

17 Leave must be taken in single continuous period

- 18 (2) The employee must take the leave in a single continuous period.

19 Note: An employee may take a form of paid leave at the same time as he or 20 she is on unpaid parental leave: see section 25.

21 When birth-related leave must start

- 22 (3) If the leave is birth-related leave for a female employee who is 23 pregnant with, or gives birth to, the child, the period of leave may 24 start up to 6 weeks before the expected date of birth of the child,
25 but must not start later than the date of birth of the child.
26 (4) If subsection (3) does not apply, the period of leave must start on 27 the date of birth of the child.

28 When adoption-related leave must start

- 29 (5) If the leave is adoption-related leave, the period of leave must start 30 on the day of placement of the child.

Section 18

1 18 The period of leave: members of an employee couple who each
2 intend to take leave

3 When this section applies

- 4 (1) This section applies to an employee couple if each of the 5 employees intends to take unpaid parental leave.

6 Leave must be taken in single continuous period

- 7 (2) Each employee must take the leave in a single continuous period.

8 Note: An employee may take a form of paid leave at the same time as he or 9 she is on unpaid parental leave: see section 25.

10 When birth-related leave must start

- 11 (3) If the leave is birth-related leave:

12 (a) one employee's period of leave must start first, in accordance 13 with the following rules:

14 (i) if the member of the employee couple whose period of 15 leave starts first is a female employee who is pregnant
16 with, or gives birth to, the child—the period of leave
17 may start up to 6 weeks before the expected date of 18 birth of the child, but must not start later than the date of 19 birth of the child;

20 (ii) if subparagraph (i) does not apply—the period of leave
21 must start on the date of birth of the child; and

22 (b) the other employee's period of leave must start immediately
23 after the end of the first employee's period of leave (or that 24 period as extended under section 21 or 22).

25 When adoption-related leave must start

- 26 (4) If the leave is adoption-related leave:

27 (a) one employee's period of leave must start on the day of 28 placement of the child; and

29 (b) the other employee's period of leave must start immediately
30 after the end of the first employee's period of leave (or that 31 period as extended under section 21 or 22).

Limited right to take concurrent leave

(5) If one of the employees takes a period (the first employee's period of leave) of unpaid parental leave in accordance with paragraph (3)(a) or (4)(a), the other employee may take a period of unpaid parental leave (the concurrent leave) during the first employee's period of leave, if the concurrent leave complies with the following requirements:

(a) the concurrent leave must be for a period of 3 weeks or less;

(b) subject to paragraph (c), the concurrent leave must not start before, and must not end more than 3 weeks after:

(i) if the leave is birth-related leave—the date of birth of the child; or

(ii) if the leave is adoption-related leave—the day of placement of the child;

(c) if the employer agrees, the concurrent leave may (subject to paragraph (a)):

(i) start earlier than is permitted by paragraph (b); or

(ii) end up to 3 weeks later than is permitted by paragraph (b).

(6) Concurrent leave taken by an employee:

(a) is an exception to the rule that the employee must take his or her leave in a single continuous period (see subsection (2)); and

(b) is an exception to the rules about when the employee's period of unpaid parental leave must start (see subsection (3) or (4)).

Note: The concurrent leave is unpaid parental leave and so comes out of the employee's entitlement to 12 months of unpaid parental leave under section 16.

19 Pregnant employee may be required to take unpaid parental leave within 6 weeks before the birth

(1) If a pregnant employee who is entitled to parental leave (whether or not she has complied with section 20) continues to work during the period of 6 weeks before the expected date of birth of the child, the employer may ask the employee to give the employer a medical certificate containing the following statements (as applicable):

Division 4 Parental leave and related entitlements

Section 19

- 1 (a) a statement of whether the employee is fit to work;
- 2 (b) if the employee is fit to work—a statement of whether it is
- 3 inadvisable for the employee to continue in her present
- 4 position during a stated period because of:
- 5 (i) illness, or risks, arising out of the employee’s
- 6 pregnancy; or
- 7 (ii) hazards connected with the position.
- 8 Note: Personal information given to an employer under this subsection may
- 9 be regulated under the Privacy Act 1988.
- 10 (2) Subject to subsection (3), the employer may require the employee
- 11 to take a period of unpaid parental leave (the period of leave) as
- 12 soon as reasonably practicable if:
- 13 (a) the employee does not give the employer the requested
- 14 certificate within 7 days after the request; or
- 15 (b) within 7 days after the request, the employee gives the
- 16 employer a medical certificate stating that the employee is
- 17 not fit for work; or
- 18 (c) the following subparagraphs are satisfied:
- 19 (i) within 7 days after the request, the employee gives the
- 20 employer a medical certificate stating that the employee
- 21 is fit for work, but that it is inadvisable for the employee
- 22 to continue in her present position for stated period for a
- 23 reason mentioned in subparagraph (1)(b)(i) or (ii);
- 24 (ii) section 27 does not apply to the employee.
- 25 Note: If the medical certificate contains a statement as mentioned in
- 26 subparagraph (c)(i) and section 27 applies to the employee, the
- 27 employee is entitled under that section to be transferred to a safe job,
- 28 or to paid no safe job leave.
- 29 (3) The period of leave must not end later than the earlier of the
- 30 following:
- 31 (a) the end of the pregnancy;
- 32 (b) if the employee has given the employer notice of the taking
- 33 of a period of leave connected with the birth of the child
- 34 (whether it is unpaid parental leave or some other kind of
- 35 leave)—the start date of that leave.
- 36 (4) The period of leave:

- 1 (a) is an exception to the rule that the employee must take her
 2 unpaid parental leave in a single continuous period (see 3 subsection 17(2) or 18(2)); and
 4 (b) is an exception to the rules about when the employee's period
 5 of unpaid parental leave must start (see subsection 17(3) or 6 18(3)).
- 7 Note: The period of leave is unpaid parental leave and so comes out of the 8 employee's entitlement to 12 months of unpaid parental leave under
 9 section 16.
- 10 (5) The employee is not required to comply with section 20 in relation 11 to the period of leave.

12 20 Notice and evidence requirements

13 Notice

- 14 (1) An employee must give his or her employer written notice of the 15 taking of unpaid parental leave under section 17 or 18 by the 16 employee.
- 17 (2) The notice must be given to the employer:
 18 (a) at least 10 weeks before starting the leave; or 19 (b) if that is not reasonably practicable—as soon as is reasonably
 20 practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started).
- 21 (3) The notice must specify the intended start and end dates of the 22 leave.

23 Evidence

- 24 (4) An employee who has given his or her employer notice of the 25 taking of unpaid parental leave must, if required by the employer,
 26 give the employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person:
 27 (a) if the leave is birth-related leave—of the date of birth, or the 28 expected date of birth, of the child; or
 29 (b) if the leave is adoption-related leave:
 30 (i) of the day of placement, or the expected day of 31 placement, of the child; and

Division 4 Parental leave and related entitlements

Section 21

1 (ii) that the child is, or will be, under school age as at the
2 day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of 3 the child.

4 (5) Without limiting the generality of subsection (4), an employer may 5 require the evidence referred to in paragraph (4)(a) to be a medical 6 certificate.

7 Compliance

8 (6) An employee is not entitled to take unpaid parental leave under 9 section 17 or 18 unless the employee complies with this section.

10 Note: Personal information given to an employer under this section may be
11 regulated under the Privacy Act 1988.

12 21 Extending period of unpaid parental leave: extending to use more
13 of available parental leave period

14 When this section applies

15 (1) This section applies if:

- 16 (a) an employee has, in accordance with section 20, given notice 17 of the taking of unpaid parental leave; and 18 (b) the period specified in the notice (the original leave period)
19 is less than the employee's available parental leave period.

20 (2) The employee's available parental leave period is 12 months, less 21 any periods of the following kinds:

- 22 (a) a period of concurrent leave that the employee has taken in 23 accordance with subsection 18(5);
24 (b) a period of unpaid parental leave that the employee has been 25 required to take under subsection 19(2);
26 (c) a period by which the employee's entitlement to unpaid
27 parental leave is reduced under paragraph 22(4)(c);
28 (d) a period of special maternity leave that the employee has 29 taken.

1 First extension by giving notice to employer

- 2 (3) The employee may extend the period of unpaid parental leave by 3 giving his or her employer written notice of the extension not later
4 than 4 weeks before the end date of the original leave period. The 5 notice must specify the new end date for the leave.
- 6 (4) Only one extension is permitted under subsection (3).

7 Subsequent extensions by agreement with employer

- 8 (5) If the employer agrees, the employee may further extend the period
9 of unpaid parental leave one or more times.

10 No entitlement to extension beyond available parental leave period

- 11 (6) Nothing in this section entitles the employee to extend the period 12 of unpaid parental leave beyond the employee's available parental 13 leave period.

14 22 Extending period of unpaid parental leave: extending for up to 12
15 months beyond available parental leave period

16 Employee may request further period of leave

- 17 (1) An employee who takes unpaid parental leave for his or her 18 available parental leave period may request his or her employer to 19 agree to an extension of unpaid parental leave for the employee for 20 a further period of up to 12 months immediately following the end
21 of the available parental leave period.

22 Making the request

- 23 (2) The request must be in writing, and must be given to the employer
24 at least 4 weeks before the end of the available parental leave
25 period.

26 Agreeing to the requested extension

- 27 (3) The employer must agree to the requested extension, unless the 28 employer has reasonable business grounds for refusing.

Special rules for employee couples

- (4) The following paragraphs apply in relation to a member of an employee couple extending a period of unpaid parental leave in respect of a child under this section:
 - (a) the request must specify the amount (if any) of unpaid parental leave and unpaid special maternity leave that the other member of the employee couple has taken, or will have taken, in relation to the child before the extension starts;
 - (b) the period of the extension cannot exceed 12 months, less any period of unpaid parental leave or unpaid special maternity leave that the other member of the employee couple has taken, or will have taken, in relation to the child before the extension starts;
 - (c) the amount of unpaid parental leave to which the other member of the employee couple is entitled under section 16 in respect of the child is reduced by the period of the extension.

18 23 Reducing period of unpaid parental leave

19 If the employer agrees, an employee may reduce the period of 20 unpaid parental leave he or she takes.

21 24 Employee who ceases to have responsibility for care of child

- 22 (1) This section applies to an employee who has taken unpaid parental 23 leave in respect of a child if the employee ceases to have any 24 responsibility for the care of the child.
- 25 (2) The employer may give the employee written notice requiring the 26 employee to return to work on a specified day.
- 27 (3) The specified day:
 - 28 (a) must be at least 4 weeks after the notice is given to the 29 employee; and
 - 30 (b) if the leave is birth-related leave taken by a female employee 31 who has given birth—must not be earlier than 6 weeks after 32 the date of birth of the child.

- 1 (4) The employee's entitlement to unpaid parental leave in respect of 2 the child ends immediately before the specified day.

3 25 Interaction with paid leave

- 4 (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), nothing in this Subdivision
5 prevents an employee from taking any other kind of paid leave
6 while he or she is taking unpaid parental leave. If the employee
7 does so, the taking of that other paid leave does not break the 8 continuity of the period of unpaid parental leave.

9 Note: For example, if the employee has paid annual leave available, he or 10 she may (with the employer's agreement) take some or all of that paid 11 annual leave at the same time as the unpaid parental leave.

- 12 (2) An employee is not entitled to take paid personal/carer's leave or 13 compassionate leave while he or she is taking unpaid parental
14 leave.

- 15 (3) An employee is not entitled to any payment under Division 7
16 (community service leave) in relation to activities the employee
17 engages in while taking unpaid parental leave.

18 Subdivision C—Other entitlements

19 26 Unpaid special maternity leave

20 Entitlement to unpaid special maternity leave

- 21 (1) A female employee is entitled to a period of unpaid special 22 maternity leave if she is unfit for work during that period because:
23 (a) she has a pregnancy-related illness; or
24 (b) she has been pregnant, and the pregnancy ends within 28
25 weeks of the expected date of birth of the child otherwise
26 than by the birth of a living child.

27 Note: Entitlement is also affected by section 14.

28 Notice and evidence

- 29 (2) An employee must give her employer notice of the taking of 30 unpaid special maternity leave by the employee.

Division 4 Parental leave and related entitlements

Section 27

- 1 (3) The notice:
2 (a) must be given to the employer as soon as reasonably
3 practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started);
4 and
5 (b) must advise the employer of the period, or expected period,
6 of the leave.
- 7 (4) An employee who has given her employer notice of the taking of 8 unpaid special maternity leave must, if required by the employer,
9 give the employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person
10 that the leave is taken for a reason specified in subsection (1).
- 11 (5) Without limiting the generality of subsection (4), an employer may 12 require the evidence referred to in that subsection to be a medical 13 certificate.
- 14 (6) An employee is not entitled to take unpaid special maternity leave 15 unless the employee complies with subsections (2) to (4).
- 16 Taking of special maternity leave reduces entitlement to unpaid
17 parental leave
- 18 (7) A female employee's entitlement to 12 months unpaid parental 19 leave associated with the birth of a child (see section 16) is reduced 20 by the amount of any unpaid special maternity leave taken by the 21 employee while she was pregnant.
- 22 Note: Personal information given to an employer under this section may be
23 regulated under the Privacy Act 1988.

24 27 Transfer to a safe job

- 25 (1) This section applies to a female employee who is pregnant if:
26 (a) she is entitled to unpaid parental leave; and 27 (b) she has already complied with the notice and evidence
28 requirements of section 20 for taking unpaid parental leave;
29 and
30 (c) she gives her employer evidence that would satisfy a
31 reasonable person that she is fit to work, but that it is 32 inadvisable for her to continue in her present position during 33 a stated period (the risk period) because of:

- 1 (i) illness, or risks, arising out of her pregnancy; or 2 (ii) hazards connected with that position.
- 3 Note: Personal information given to an employer under this subsection may
 4 be regulated under the Privacy Act 1988.
- 5 (2) Without limiting the generality of paragraph (1)(c), an employer
 6 may require the evidence referred to in that paragraph to be a 7 medical certificate.
- 8 (3) If this section applies to an employee:
 9 (a) if there is an appropriate safe job available—the employer
 10 must transfer the employee to that job for the risk period,
 11 with no other change to the employee’s terms and conditions
 12 of employment; or
 13 (b) if there is no appropriate safe job available—the employee is 14 entitled to take paid no safe job leave for the risk period.
- 15 (4) An appropriate safe job is a safe job that has:
 16 (a) the same ordinary hours of work as the employee’s present
 17 position; or
 18 (b) a different number of ordinary hours agreed to by the 19 employee.
- 20 (5) Without limiting paragraph (3)(a), if the employee is transferred to 21 an appropriate safe job for the risk period, the employer must pay 22 the employee for the safe job at the employee’s full rate of pay (for 23 the position she was in before the transfer) for the hours that she 24 works in the risk period.
- 25 (6) If the employee takes paid no safe job leave for the risk period, the 26 employer must pay the employee at the employee’s base rate of 27 pay for the employee’s ordinary hours of work in the risk period.
- 28 (7) If the employee’s pregnancy ends before the end of the risk period,
 29 the risk period ends when the pregnancy ends.

30 28 Consultation with employee on unpaid parental leave

- 31 (1) If:
 32 (a) an employee is on unpaid parental leave; and

Division 4 Parental leave and related entitlements

Section 29

- 1 (b) the employee’s employer makes a decision that will have a
2 significant effect on the status, pay or location of the 3 employee’s pre-parental leave position;
4 the employer must take all reasonable steps to give the employee
5 information about, and an opportunity to discuss, the effect of the 6 decision on that position.
- 7 (2) The employee’s pre-parental leave position is:
8 (a) unless paragraph (b) applies, the position the employee held 9 before starting the unpaid parental leave; or 10 (b) if, before starting the unpaid parental leave, the employee:
11 (i) was transferred to a safe job because of her pregnancy;
12 or
13 (ii) reduced her working hours due to her pregnancy;
14 the position the employee held immediately before that 15 transfer or reduction.

16 29 Return to work guarantee

- 17 On finishing unpaid parental leave, an employee is entitled to 18 return to:
19 (a) the employee’s pre-parental leave position; or 20 (b) if that position no longer exists—an available position for 21 which the employee is qualified and suited nearest in status
22 and pay to the pre-parental leave position.

23 30 Unpaid pre-adoption leave

24 Entitlement to unpaid pre-adoption leave

- 25 (1) Subject to subsection (2), an employee is entitled to up to 2 days of 26 unpaid pre-adoption leave to attend any interviews or examinations 27 required in order to obtain approval for the employee’s adoption of 28 a child.

29 Note: Entitlement is also affected by sections 14 and 15.

- 30 (2) An employee is not entitled to take a period of unpaid pre-adoption 31 leave if:

- 1 (a) the employee could instead take some other form of leave;
2 and
3 (b) the employer would prefer the employee to take that other
4 form of leave.
- 5 (3) An employee who is entitled to a period of unpaid pre-adoption
6 leave is entitled to take the leave as:
7 (a) a single continuous period of up to 2 days; or 8 (b) any separate periods to which the employee and the employer
9 agree.
- 10 Notice and evidence
- 11 (4) An employee must give his or her employer notice of the taking of 12 unpaid pre-adoption leave by the employee.
- 13 (5) The notice:
14 (a) must be given to the employer as soon as reasonably
15 practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started);
16 and
17 (b) must advise the employer of the period, or expected period,
18 of the leave.
- 19 (6) An employee who has given his or her employer notice of the 20 taking of unpaid pre-adoption leave must, if required by the 21 employer, give the employer evidence that would satisfy a
22 reasonable person that the leave is taken to attend an interview or 23 examination as mentioned in subsection (1).
- 24 (7) An employee is not entitled to take unpaid pre-adoption leave
25 unless the employee complies with subsections (4) to (6).
- 26 Note: Personal information given to an employer under this section may be
27 regulated under the Privacy Act 1988.

2 Division 5—Annual leave

3 31 Division applies to employees other than casual employees

4 This Division applies to employees, other than casual employees.

5 32 Entitlement to annual leave

- 6 (1) Subject to subsection (2), for each year of service with his or her 7 employer, an employee is entitled to:
8 (a) 4 weeks of paid annual leave; or 9 (b) if a modern award that applies to the employee's
10 employment defines or describes the employee as a
11 shiftworker for the purpose of this Division—5 weeks of paid
12 annual leave.

- 13 (2) An employee's entitlement to paid annual leave accrues
14 progressively during a year of service according to the employee's
15 ordinary hours of work.

16 Note: If an employee's employment ends during what would otherwise have 17 been a year of service, the employee accrues paid annual leave up to 18 the time when the employment ends.

19 33 Taking paid annual leave

- 20 (1) Paid annual leave may be taken for a period agreed between an 21 employee and his or her employer.
22 (2) The employer must not unreasonably refuse to agree to a request
23 by the employee to take paid annual leave.

24 34 Employee not taken to be on paid annual leave at certain times

- 25 (1) If the period during which an employee takes paid annual leave
26 includes a day or part-day that is a public holiday in the place 27 where the employee is based for work purposes, the employee is 28 taken not to be on paid annual leave on that public holiday.

- 1 (2) If the period during which an employee takes paid annual leave
2 includes a period of any other leave (other than unpaid parental
3 leave) under this Part, or a period of absence from employment
4 under Division 7 (community service leave), the employee is taken
5 not to be on paid annual leave for the period of that other leave or 6 absence.

7 35 Payment for annual leave

- 8 (1) If, in accordance with this Division, an employee takes a period of 9 paid annual leave, the employer must pay the employee at the 10 employee's base rate of pay for the employee's ordinary hours of 11 work in the period.
- 12 (2) If, when the employment of an employee ends, the employee has a 13 period of untaken paid annual leave, the employer must pay the 14 employee the amount that would have been payable to the 15 employee under subsection (1) if the employee had taken that 16 period of annual leave.

17 36 Modern awards may include certain kinds of provisions

- 18 (1) A modern award may include provisions of any of the following 19 kinds:
- 20 (a) provisions for the cashing out of paid annual leave;

22 employee to be required) to take paid annual leave in 23 particular circumstances;
 - 24 (c) provisions otherwise dealing with the taking of paid annual 25 leave.
- 26 (2) Provisions in a modern award for the cashing out of paid annual 27 leave must:
- 28 (a) prohibit the employer from exerting undue influence or 29 undue pressure on the employee to cash out the employee's 30 leave; and
 - 31 (b) provide that the employee must be paid the full amount that
32 would have been payable to the employee had the employee
33 taken the leave that the employee has forgone.

13 progressively during a year of service according to the employee's
14 ordinary hours of work.

15 39 Taking paid personal/carer's leave

16 An employee may take paid personal/carer's leave if the leave is 17 taken:

19 illness, or personal injury, affecting the employee; or 20 (b) to provide care or support to a member of the employee's
21 immediate family, or a member of the employee's household,
22 who requires care or support because of:
23 (i) a personal illness, or personal injury, affecting the 24 member; or
25 (ii) an unexpected emergency affecting the member.

26 Note: The notice and evidence requirements of section 48 must be complied 27 with.

- 22 (b) provide that the employee must be paid the full amount that
 23 would have been payable to the employee had the employee
 24 taken the leave that the employee has forgone.

25 Subdivision B—Unpaid carer's leave

26 43 Entitlement to unpaid carer's leave

27 An employee is entitled to 2 days of unpaid carer's leave for each 28 occasion (a permissible occasion) when a member of the

50 Entitlement to be absent from employment for engaging in eligible community service activity

17

18

19

An employee who engages in an eligible community service activity is entitled to be absent from his or her employment for a period if:

20

22

23

(i) time when the employee engages in the activity;

(ii) reasonable travelling time associated with the activity;

(iii) reasonable rest time immediately following the activity;

and

(b) unless the activity is jury service—the employee’s absence is reasonable in all the circumstances.

Section 51

1 51 Notice and evidence requirements

2 Notice

3 (1) An employee who wants an absence from his or her employment to 4 be covered by this Division must give his or her employer notice of 11 of the absence.

12 Evidence

13 (3) An employee who has given his or her employer notice of an 14 absence under subsection (1) must, if required by the employer,
15 give the employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person
16 that the absence is because the employee has been or will be 17 engaging in an eligible community service activity.

18 Compliance

19 (4) An employee's absence from his or her employment is not covered
20 by this Division unless the employee complies with this section.

22 regulated under the Privacy Act 1988.

23 52 Payment to employees (other than casuals) on jury service

- 1 (3) The employer may require the employee to give the employer
2 evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person:
- 3 (a) that the employee has taken all necessary steps to obtain any 4 amount of jury service pay to which the employee is entitled;
5 and
6 (b) of the total amount (even if it is a nil amount) of jury service
7 pay that has been paid, or is payable, to the employee for the

- 9 Note: Personal information given to an employer under this subsection may 10 be regulated under the Privacy Act 1988.
- 11 (4) If, in accordance with subsection (3), the employer requires the 12 employee to give the employer the evidence referred to in that 13 subsection:
- 14 (a) the employee is not entitled to payment under subsection (2)
15 unless the employee provides the evidence; and 16 (b) if the employee provides the evidence—the amount payable 17 to the employee under subsection (2) is reduced by the total
18 amount of jury service pay that has been paid, or is payable,
19 to the employee, as disclosed in the evidence.
- 20 (5) If an employee is absent because of jury service in relation to a 21 particular jury service summons for a period, or a number of 22 periods, of more than 10 days in total:
- 23 (a) the employer is only required to pay the employee for the 24 first 10 days of absence; and
25 (b) the evidence provided in response to a requirement under 26 subsection (3) need only relate to the first 10 days of 27 absence; and
28 (c) the reference in subsection (4) to the total amount of jury

2 Division 8—Long service leave

3 53 Entitlement to long service leave

8

9

10

11

25

26

Note: If there ceases to be any agreement or instrument of a kind referred to in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) that applies to the employee's employment, the employee will, at that time, become entitled to long service leave in accordance with applicable award-derived long service leave provisions.

27

29

30

31

(2) Applicable award-derived long service leave provisions, in relation to an employee, are provisions of an award, or of a notional agreement preserving State awards:

32

33

- 1 (i) the employee had, at that time, been in his or her current
- 2 circumstances of employment; and
- 3 (ii) no workplace agreement, AWA (within the meaning of
- 4 Schedule 7A) or workplace determination, had (whether
- 5 at that time or earlier) applied to the employee's
- 6 employment; and
- 7 (b) that would have entitled the employee to long service leave
- 8 (or that relate to matters that are ancillary or incidental to
- 9 such an entitlement).

2 Division 9—Public holidays

3 54 Meaning of *public holiday

4

19

20

21

(b) any other day, or part-day, declared by or under a law of a State or Territory to be observed generally within the State or Territory, or a region of the State or Territory, as a public holiday, other than a day or part-day, or a kind of day or part-day, that is excluded by the regulations from counting as a public holiday.

22

Substituted public holidays under State or Territory laws

23

25

26

(2) If, under (or in accordance with a procedure under) a law of a State or Territory, a day or part-day is substituted for a day or part-day that would otherwise be a public holiday because of subsection (1), then the substituted day or part-day is the public holiday.

27

Substituted public holidays under modern awards

28

29

30

(3) A modern award may substitute (or provide for the substitution of) a day or part-day for a day or part-day that would otherwise be a public holiday because of subsection (1) or (2).

55 Entitlement to be absent from employment on public holiday

- 1
- 2 (1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4), an employee is entitled to be
3 absent from his or her employment on a day or part-day that is a
4 public holiday in the place where the employee is based for work
5 purposes.
- 6 (2) An employer may request an employee to work on a public holiday
7 if the request is reasonable.
- 8 (3) If an employer requests an employee to work on a public holiday, 9 the employee may refuse the request if:
10 (a) the request is not reasonable; or 11 (b) the refusal is reasonable.
- 12 (4) In determining whether a request, or a refusal of a request, to work 13 on a public holiday is reasonable, the following must be 14 considered:
15 (a) the nature of the employer's workplace or enterprise
16 (including its operational requirements), and the nature of the 17 work performed by the employee;
18 (b) the employee's personal circumstances, including family
19 responsibilities;
20 (c) whether the employee could reasonably expect that the 21 employer might request work on the public holiday;
22 (d) whether the employee is entitled to receive overtime
23 payments, penalty rates or other compensation for, or a level
24 of remuneration that reflects an expectation of, work on the 25 public holiday;
26 (e) the type of employment of the employee (for example,
27 whether full-time, part-time, casual or shiftwork);
28 (f) the amount of notice in advance of the public holiday given
29 by the employer when making the request;
30 (g) in relation to the refusal of a request—the amount of notice
31 in advance of the public holiday given by the employee when 32 refusing the request;
33 (h) any other relevant matter.

1 56 Payment for absence on public holiday

2 If, in accordance with this Division, an employee is absent from his 3 or her employment on a day or part-day that is a public holiday, the
4 employer must pay the employee at the employee's base rate of 5 pay for the employee's ordinary hours of work on the day or 6 part-day.

7 Note: If the employee does not have ordinary hours of work on the public
8 holiday, the employee is not entitled to payment under this section.
9 For example, the employee is not entitled to payment if the employee
10 is a casual employee who is not rostered on for the public holiday, or 11 is a part-time employee whose part-time hours do not include the day
12 of the week on which the public holiday occurs.

2 Division 10—Notice of termination and redundancy pay

3 Subdivision A—Notice of termination or payment in lieu of 4 notice

5 57 Requirement for notice of termination or payment in lieu

6 Notice specifying day of termination

7 (1) An employer must not terminate an employee’s employment unless 8 the employer has given the employee written notice of the day of 9 the termination (which cannot be before the day the notice is 10 given).

11 Note 1: Section 64 describes situations in which this section does not apply.

12 Note 2: Sections 28A and 29 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 provide how 13 a notice may be given. In particular, the notice may be given to an 14 employee by:

- 15 (a) delivering it personally; or
- 16 (b) leaving it at the employee’s last known address; or
- 17 (c) sending it by pre-paid post to the employee’s last known address.

18 Amount of notice or payment in lieu of notice

19 (2) The employer must not terminate the employee’s employment 20 unless:

- 21 (a) the time between giving the notice and the day of the 22 termination is at least the period (the minimum period of 23 notice) worked out under subsection (3); or
- 24 (b) the employer has paid the employee payment in lieu of notice
25 of at least the amount the employer would have been liable to 26 pay the employee at the full rate of pay for the hours he or 27 she would have worked had the employment continued until 28 the end of the minimum period of notice.

29 (3) Work out the minimum period of notice as follows:

- 30 (a) first, work out the period using the following table:

Section 58

Period
Employee's period of continuous service with the employer at the end of the day the notice is given	Period
1 Not more than 1 year	1 week
2 More than 1 year but not more than 3 years	2 weeks
3 More than 3 years but not more than 5 years	3 weeks
4 More than 5 years	4 weeks

1 (b) then increase the period by 1 week if the employee is over 45
2 years old and has completed at least 2 years of continuous
3 service with the employer at the end of the day the notice is 4 given.

5 58 Transmission of business and notice of termination or payment in 6 lieu

7 (1) For the purposes of section 57, a transferring employee's period of 8 continuous service includes each period of continuous service of 9 the employee with an old employer in the business being 10 transferred (whether or not the old employer was previously a new 11 employer in connection with the business).

12 (2) However, the employee's continuous service with an old employer
13 is disregarded so far as the employee had previously received
14 notice of termination, or payment in lieu of such notice, in respect 15 of that service.

16 59 Modern awards may provide for notice of termination by
17 employees

18 A modern award may include provisions specifying the period of 19 notice an employee must give in order to terminate his or her
20 employment.

Subdivision B—Redundancy pay

60 Redundancy pay

- (1) An employee is entitled to be paid redundancy pay by the employer if the employee’s employment is terminated:
- (a) at the employer’s initiative because the employer no longer requires the job done by the employee to be done by anyone, except where this is due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour; or
 - (b) because of the insolvency or bankruptcy of the employer.

Note: Sections 62, 63 and 64 describe situations in which the employee does not have this entitlement.

- (2) The amount of the redundancy pay equals the total amount payable to the employee for the redundancy pay period worked out using the following table at the employee’s base rate of pay for his or her ordinary hours of work:

Redundancy pay period
	Employee’s period of continuous service with the employer on termination	Redundancy pay period
1	At least 1 year but less than 2 years	4 weeks
2	At least 2 years but less than 3 years	6 weeks
3	At least 3 years but less than 4 years	7 weeks
4	At least 4 years but less than 5 years	8 weeks
5	At least 5 years but less than 6 years	10 weeks
6	At least 6 years but less than 7 years	11 weeks
7	At least 7 years but less than 8 years	13 weeks
8	At least 8 years but less than 9 years	14 weeks
9	At least 9 years but less than 10 years	16 weeks
10	At least 10 years	12 weeks

61 Variation of redundancy pay for other employment or incapacity to pay

- (1) This section applies if:

Section 62

- 1 (a) an employee is entitled to be paid an amount of redundancy
2 pay by the employer because of section 60; and
3 (b) the employer:
4 (i) obtains other acceptable employment for the employee;
5 or
6 (ii) cannot pay the amount.
- 7 (2) On application by the employer, Fair Work Australia may 8 determine that the amount of redundancy pay is reduced to the 9 amount specified in the determination.
- 10 (3) A determination has effect according to its terms, despite
11 section 60.

12 62 Exclusions from obligation to pay redundancy pay

- 13 (1) Section 60 does not apply to the employee if:
14 (a) his or her period of continuous service with the employer on 15 termination is less than 12 months; or 16 (b) at the earlier of the following times, the employer employed
17 fewer than 15 employees:
18 (i) the time the employee is given notice of the termination
19 as described in subsection 57(1);
20 (ii) immediately before the termination.
- 21 (2) For the purpose of calculating the number of employees employed
22 by the employer at the time applicable under paragraph (1)(b):
23 (a) subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection, all employees
24 employed by the employer at that time are to be counted,
25 including:
26 (i) the employee whose employment is being terminated;
27 and
28 (ii) any other employee of the employer whose employment
29 is also being terminated; but
30 (b) a casual employee is not to be counted unless the casual
31 employee has, immediately before that time, been engaged
32 by the employer on a regular and systematic basis for a 33 sequence of periods of employment during a period of at 34 least 12 months.

- 1 (3) For the purpose of calculating the number of employees employed
2 by the employer at the time applicable under paragraph (1)(b),
3 related bodies corporate (within the meaning of section 50 of the 4 Corporations Act 2001) are taken to be one entity.

5 63 Transmission of business and redundancy pay

6 Transferring employee

- 7 (1) Section 60 does not apply to the termination of a transferring
8 employee's employment that occurs in connection with the transfer
9 of a business if the new employer recognises the employee's
10 service with an old employer in the business being transferred 11 (whether or not the old employer was previously a new employer 12 in connection with the business).

13 Employee who rejects offer of employment with new employer

- 14 (2) Section 60 does not apply to an employee in a business being 15 transferred if he or she rejects an offer of employment with the new 16 employer:
17 (a) on terms and conditions substantially similar to, and,
18 considered on an overall basis, no less favourable than, the 19 employee's terms and conditions of employment with the old
20 employer immediately before the termination of that 21 employment; and
22 (b) recognising the employee's service with an old employer in 23 the business (whether or not the old employer was previously 24 a new employer in connection with the business).
- 25 (3) On application by the employee, Fair Work Australia may, if 26 satisfied that subsection (2) operates unfairly to him or her,
27 determine that the old employer must pay the employee a specified
28 amount of redundancy pay. The amount must not exceed his or her 29 entitlement under section 60 apart from this section.
- 30 (4) The determination has effect according to its terms.

1 Subdivision C—Limits on scope of this Division

2 64 Limits on scope of this Division

3 Employees not covered by this Division

4 (1) This Division does not apply to any of the following employees:

- 5 (a) an employee employed for a specified period of time or for a 6 specified task;
- 7 (b) an employee serving a period of probation, or a qualifying
8 period of employment, that is determined in advance and is 9 of a duration prescribed by the regulations;
- 10 (c) an employee whose employment is terminated because of 11 serious misconduct;
- 12 (d) a casual employee;
- 13 (e) a seasonal employee;
- 14 (f) a trainee (other than an apprentice) to whom a training
15 arrangement applies;
- 16 (g) an employee prescribed by the regulations as an employee to 17 whom this Division does not apply.

18 (2) Paragraph (1)(a) does not prevent this Division from applying to an 19 employee if a substantial reason for employing the employee as 20 described in that paragraph was to avoid the application of this 21 Division.

22 Other employees not covered by notice of termination provisions

23 (3) Subdivision A does not apply to:

- 24 (a) a daily hire employee working in the building and 25 construction industry (including working in connection with 26 the erection, repair, renovation, maintenance, ornamentation 27 or demolition of buildings or structures); or
- 28 (b) a daily hire employee working in the meat industry in 29 connection with the slaughter of livestock; or
- 30 (c) a weekly hire employee working in connection with the meat
31 industry and whose termination of employment is determined
32 solely by seasonal factors; or

- 1 (d) an employee prescribed by the regulations as an employee to
2 whom that Subdivision does not apply.

3 Other employees not covered by redundancy pay provisions

- 4 (4) Subdivision B does not apply to:
5 (a) an employee who is an apprentice; or 6 (b) an employee covered by a modern award that includes an 7 industry-specific redundancy scheme; or 8 (c) an employee prescribed by the regulations as an employee to 9 whom that Subdivision does not apply.

2 Division 11—Fair Work Information Statement

3 65 Fair Work Australia to publish statement

4 (1) Fair Work Australia must publish in the Gazette a statement called 5 the Fair Work Information Statement.

6 Note: Fair Work Australia must publish the Fair Work Information
7 Statement in the Gazette as occasion requires (for example whenever 8 Fair Work Australia changes the statement): see subsection 33(1) of 9 the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

10 (2) The Fair Work Information Statement must contain information
11 about the following:

- 12 (a) the National Employment Standards;
13 (b) modern awards;
14 (c) agreement-making under this Act;
15 (d) the right to freedom of association;
16 (e) the role of Fair Work Australia.

17 (3) The regulations may prescribe other matters relating to the content
18 or form of the Fair Work Information Statement, or the manner in 19 which employers may give the Fair Work Information Statement to 20 employees.

21 (4) A statement published under subsection (1) is not a legislative 22 instrument.

23 66 Giving new employees the Fair Work Information Statement

24 (1) An employer must give each employee the Fair Work Information
25 Statement before, or as soon as practicable after, the employee
26 commences employment.

27 (2) Subsection (1) does not require the employer to give the employee
28 the Fair Work Information Statement more than once in any 12
29 months.

30 Note: This is relevant if the employer employs the employee more than once 31 in the 12 months.
