

Bargaining about to begin at Emirates

ASU members at Emirates have endorsed our claim for the next Emirates EBA. The claim was developed after consultation with our members at Emirates and through surveys and feedback from delegates. Today our claim has been served on Emirates management.

A copy of our claims are available from your local ASU organizer and delegates.

What's next?

The ASU National Negotiating Team (NNT) is meeting with Emirates management on 20th September 2013 to begin negotiations. Representatives from the other union at Emirates – the Australian Licensed Aircraft Engineers Association will also attend this meeting together with other staff representatives. We expect to start the discussion of our claims at this meeting and to discuss what the company is seeking from the negotiations. We will also plan the future bargaining dates.

Watch out for our regular bulletins on progress which will be available on our website.
